Supporting Chinese submissions

• Sharing of best practice
  – How and when to refer authors to language polishing
  – Chinese language peer review
• Better language polishing services
• Improved instructions for Chinese authors
• Developing strategic plans
• Workshops on ‘how to write a research paper’
• Improve our Chinese language website
Support for journals

We seek to:

• Facilitate visits and find suitable contacts for journal editors to meet
• Recommend competent Chinese academics as possible editors or board members
• Organize author workshops in China
Ethics and cultural context

Promoting integrity in research publication

COPE is a forum for editors and publishers of peer-reviewed journals to discuss all aspects of publication ethics. It also advises editors on how to handle cases of research and publication misconduct. Read more About COPE...

Guidelines
Access COPE’s official guidance, including the Retraction Guidelines.

Flowcharts
Our flowcharts are designed to help editors follow COPE’s Code of Conduct and implement its advice when faced with cases of suspected misconduct.

eLearning
COPE’s eLearning course is now live. Designed to give editors a deeper understanding about publication ethics and practical guidance about how to detect, prevent and handle misconduct.

Code of Conduct
COPE aims to define best practice in the ethics of scholarly publishing and to assist editors, editorial board members, owners of journals and publishers to achieve this.
